GEORGIOS CHEIMARIOS

MASTER MARINER

Personal Profile:

I got the yachting bug when as a child was visiting the business of my father in the marina of corfu island (Greece) a mini market. I was spending hours just watching the yachts in the piers. It was there when i decided to become a captain. I finished high school and succeeded in the tests for the merchant marine academy of Greece. I made two contracts as apprentice officer in cargo vessels and tankers and took my first yacht experience working as deckhand in a small private yacht the summer of 2011. In 2012 i graduated from the Merchant marine academy of Greece obtaining at the same time my Master 500gt licence.

Objective:

My goal is to continuously evolve my professional skills in yachting industry and provide the highest possible services to my employers.
